NEW HOME FOR DAY XURSERY. Interesting Exercises Mark the

Opening of the Institution. The new home of the Belle S. Bryan Free Nursery and Kindergarten was opened yesterday afternoon with impressive exercises. Rev. Dr. Tudor opened the meeting with a fervent prayer for the continued usefulness of the school and continued usefulness of the school and for the welfare of all the noble women connected with its founding, with espe-cial mention of the public-spirited wo-man whose name the school now bears. "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" was sung by the visitors and children in unison. Rev. Mr. Goodwin, of St. John's Episcopal church, followed with readings from the eighteenth chapter of Luke, beginning, "Suffer little children to come unto Me, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

The little children of the school, who stood in the front parlor, sang a hymn, with Mrs. Morris, their teacher, leading. Their fresh, young voices sounded very sweet and clear as they sang. Their hearsweet and clear as they sang. Their hear-ers clapped souldy when the bymn was over, and the rosy-cheeked little girls of 3 and 4, followed by their older sisters and brothers, filed out into the flower garden behind the house. One lit-tle girl did not go out with the others. She had fallen asleep, with her head nodded against the chair back and her curls fallen over her even

Mrs. Harvie Blair sang with an accompaniment by Miss Smoot, a beautiful song, "Open the Gates of the Temple." Her voice had never sounded more glo-riously full and clear. Rev. Mr. Z. T. Sweeney read the report of the work of the Day Nursery and Kindergarten from the days of its commencement up to the purchase of the new house, on the corner of Nineteenth and Grace streets.

Rev. M. Ashby Jones, of Leigh-Street Saptist church, was introduced to make the special address for the occasion. In a few words he supplemented the bare facts of the report with an eloquent exposition of the alms and work of the nursery. He

Since the magic hand of woman first touched the wounds of men and her voice carried its first message of love and comfort, there has been no woman's work which deserves more help and admiration than the founding of a free nursery and kindergarten. The women who were its founders have translated a noble theory into noble action. They have raised up a safe shelter where a mother may leave her baby when she mother may leave her baby when she must go out to work for the daily bread, and where the child may grow up with strong body and undimmed eyes to choose his way on the rocky path that lies before him. They have not only helped the helpless; they have helped them to help themselves. In warring against he great army of criminals society has said, "We must make laws that will leave it hard to go wrong and easy to go right; the cancer of vice must be cut off our system." Laws have been made, and crime still flourishes; the cancer has been cut off, but the roots are still left to poison the system. Charity, that should breakwater against crime, has often failed, too; because it has bred pauper-ism. The wisdom, then, that the man-agers of this institution have shown in giving the parents a share in the support of the school and in encouraging them in their works, shows all the brighter for the contrast with injudicious work and wasted efforts. And I, for one, shall and wasted efforts. And I, for one, shall always be glad when I have the privilege of aiding in any work to build up the Day Nursery and Kindergarten.

Rev. Dr. J. William Jones gave the benediction, after which the numerous guests, who had been in the large playrooms and hall on the first floor of the new house, were invited to inspect the bright, airy sleeping-rooms on the second floor, where fresh paint, pictures, and little brass cribs, with white covers, made everything look very attractive.

The large yard adjoining was visited in turn, and especially pleased the children and their visitors.

the Woman's College was held yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at the college building, on north Tenth street.

Those present were Rev. Dr. H. A. Tupper (president), Rev. H. A. Bagby (vice-president), D. O. Davis, Esq. (secretary and treasurer), Drs. H. W. Battle, W. E. Hatcher, R. J. Willingham, George Cooper, and Messrs, John C. Williams, J. D. Crump, C. W. Tanner, Dr. Thomas P. Mathews, W. J. Westwood, H. Theodore Ellyson, H. R. Pollard, S. C. Mitchell, and W. S. Forbes.

The annual report of the president of the trustees, Dr. Tupper, was read and approved. The report of the president of the college, Dr. James Nelson, was most gratifying. It showed that 23 students had been enrolled during the present session. Every department of the college work was going forward. The former officers were re-elected unanimously. The possibility of changes in the teaching force of the school was discussed, but nothing definite done. The remainder of the hour was taken up with routine business. routine business.

A VERY NARROW ESCAPE.

a Car, But the Wheels Stop Short.
Mr. Frank S. Thomas, a barkeeper, living at 28tl east Clay street, was thrown down in front of a car on east Franklin street early yesterday morning, and narrowly escaped serious injuries.

Some time ago Thomas met with an accident, which crippled his right hand, rendering it all but useless. Yesterday, as he was on his way home to breakfast, laden with several parcels, he was caught by the fender of a car travelling west and thrown to the ground. Had he had the use of his right hand he might have saved himself, but, as it was, the fender passed over him, and he came within an ace of being run over by the wheels of the car.

When he was rescued from his perilous position he was considerably bruised and shaken up and had to be driven home.

Club Rechristened. The regular monthly meeting of the Jefferson Athletic Club was held last night at the club-rooms in Powell's Hall, with President Evans in the chair. The name of the organization was changed to the Jefferson Athletic Association. A good deal of routine business was transacted, and arrangements discussed for an outing soon.

Funeral of Mrs. Watson. The funeral of Mrs. James P. Watson, formerly Miss Myrtie A. Verser, whose sad death occurred at the home of her husband, in New York, on last Thursday, took place from the Second Presbyterian church, in which the deceased had been reared, at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon and the remains were borne to Holly-wood, where they were placed temporarity in the receiving vault of Laube. The pall-bearers, intimate friends of the young couple, were Messrs. W. L. Walker, Hunter Blunt, J. N. Dart, A. T. Ragiand, William Morris, Frederick C. Tower, C. J. Burton, and L. H. Barnes. Music by the church choir and a solo by Captain Frank Cunningham were touchingly rendered. Many beautiful floral designs accompanied the remains from New York, which, together with the emblems offered by her many friends in this, her native city, where nearly her in this, her native city, where nearly her

ADDRESS OF MR. JONES.

Since the magic hand of woman first

With the object of choosing a president, the Hollywood Memorial Association met yesterday afternoon in the Second Presbyterian church. Mrs. William Wirt Henry occupied the chair, and Mrs. E. C. Minor was the secretary. A letter was read from Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss, declining meeting, to take place October 31st. Meanwhile, a nominating committee will choose two or more names of ladies to be voted for at the fall meeting.

The thanks of the association were extended to a number of friends who had given important help at the recent celebration of Memoriai-Day. Among these were Miss Arents and Mrs. Young, or West Brook, who sent a handsome collection of flowers to Hollywood for the decoration of the graves; to Messrs, Harvey, Toler, and Amory, for their floral contributions, and to Mr. Davis, Superintendent of the almshouse, for his loan of benches, to add to the comfort of veteran soldiers.
